

FINANCE FOR NON-ACCOUNTANTS

MAKE SENSE OF YOUR CLUB'S FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND THRIVE

Now more than ever, clubs need to have a solid understanding of the importance of their financial statements. The management team and board need to regularly assess and evaluate the club's financials to understand the performance of the club. The balance sheet, profit and loss statement and cashflow statement are valuable documents that are critical to understanding how your club is trading, and ensuring its ongoing viability. This one-day course will provide you with the know-how and confidence to make sense of your club's financial reports.

ABOUT THE COURSE

The course will be conducted by Debbie Organ, a highly regarded industry expert, who is very familiar with the particular challenges that clubs face. She has an extensive background in banking and finance as well as university lecturing and training clubs and directors for the past 20 years. Join her one-day training and learn how to:

- Read and interpret financial statements (explained in layman's terms, line by line. Debbie assumes no knowledge of finance, so nothing to fear and everything to gain!)
- Calculate, understand and interpret key financial indicators

WHY CHOOSE US?

Debbie offers tremendous value with her skills and insight, and is the perfect industry 'brain to pick.' A specialised training course like this is a huge professional asset. Attendees are welcome to bring their own club's financials to work through and ask questions.
